MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

Dear Parents,

Normal youth would term it "A big deal". Activities in a school coupled by organizational skills is not a mere figment of the imagination. It's a mandatory part of the daily curriculum.

This semester has seen the multifarious academic, curricular, co-curricular and extra-curricular avenues of events. Many have been undermarked and some highlighted in this issue of 'The Teresian'. This issue is to prevent you from undermining the effort put into these events by the administration and teaching faculty.

An all round development for the individual student is manifested in the aims and objects of the institutional priorities. National and global and panoramic avenues of integration and adaptability form a platform for universalisation of educational facilities.

An audio-visual room, smart classroom forms a basis of imparting education through the latest information technologies. Another batch of ISC students are ready to leave and explore the world. I wish them all the best for their future and may they always keep their school motto flying high "DO ALL THINGS WELL".

ANNUAL CONCERT

St Teresa students enthral viewers

HT Correspondent

LUCKNOW: The two-day annual concert of St Teresa's Day School and College got off to a scintillating start at UP Sangeet Natak Akademi auditorium on Monday evening. The programmes presented by the students offered a glimpse in the origins, traditions and background of the institution as they celebrated 46 years of educational excellence. A large number of students participated in the event.

The performance included Hand-mime, a spoof on King Midas, birth of Jesus Christ and St Teresa, a play based on the origin and foundation of this institution which was much appreciated by the audience. Bishop of Lucknow, Fr Gerald John Mathias who was chief guest on the opening day of the annual concert, was pleased with the performances. Principal Peter Fanthome congratulated the students and appreciated the efforts of teachers in putting up the show. He said an event like this gave a platform to students to showcase their talents.

Also present on the occasion was Fr Ignatius D'Souza, the parish priest of the Cathedral, Geetika Kapoor, principal of St Teresa College, Aashiana and several others. While Christmas is still a few days to day, the Teresian family is already in celebration mode. The head of the institution wished one and all a merry Christmas and a prosperous New Year.
