MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

Dear Parents,

It gives me immense pleasure to present this issue of 'The Teresian'. Another active academic year has come to an end. The Teresian family had a fruitful year not only on a Academic but in all spheres at school and inter school levels in curricular, co-curricular and extra curricular activities.

I am pleased to announce that I am the first Principal to receive the Derozio Award for Education and Human Enrichment. I am the first Principal from Uttar Pradesh to get this award. The award consists of 24 gm. gold medal, a citation, a silver trophy and Rs. 1 Lac presented to me by the Governor of West Bengal. This was a great honour for the Teresian family and Uttar Pradesh.

Mr. Arif Ansari, Head Master of the middle school has been shifted to St. Teresa's College in the same capacity. Mr. Ivan Mohit Massey will be replacing him in this capacity from April 2013. Many congratulations to him. He has served St. Teresa's for many years. I would like to thank Mr. Peter Fanthome (Jr.), Vice Principal, Mrs. Michelle Fanthome, Head Mistress, Junior School & Mrs. Geetika Kapoor, Head Mistress, Pre-Primary School for working hard throughout the year. Thanks to my staff and students for their sincere efforts. I hope the upcoming session will be a success too. Last but not least thanks to parents for their cooperation throughout the year.

Wish you all a Happy Easter.

Peter Fanthome
Principal

SCHOOL ACTIVITIES

Green Day

'Green' is our school colour, part of our school anthem, part of our day to day living, part of our diet, part of our clothing, part of our school building and a part of our nature. Students of Prep, Nursery & KG celebrated Green Day holding placards and banners declaring "Save Earth, "Save Nature, "Go Green, "Protect Environment" and the like. With the degeneration of our natural reserves and the depreciation in the quality of nature, the knowledge of the shortcomings of future, being evident, the students amongst celebrations understood the gravity of the situation. Staff and Students were clad in green colour to mark the occasion. Thus they conveyed the message "We shall be responsible citizens of this generation" to their esteemed institution.

Blue Day

On the 12th November 2012 children of the Pre Primary section celebrated Blue Day. They were fully attired in blue and brought blue balloons. Apart from having fun with their friends, they were also given worksheets based on "Blue colour". Emphasis at St.

Teresa's is laid on "Learning by Seeing and Doing". Teachers were also dressed in blue colour clothes to mark the occasion. Mr. Peter Fanthome, Principal of the college, appreciated the efforts of the children. He said this type of activities improve the talents of the students.

Deepawali Celebration

Deepawali Celebration was held in November 2012. The students of pre-primary brought beautiful diyas, colourful pots, candles and handmade lamps to be decorated within the classroom.

They had a lot of fun while decorating all these items. Apart from this children were given worksheets based on the theme 'Diwali'. An endeavor under the guidance of Mrs. Geetika Kapoor to bring forth the meaning of the festival.

Face Painting Competition

The junior school Face Painting competition was held on 12th November 2012. It was organized by our Head Mistress Mrs. Michelle Fanthome. Children from classes I to V participated. The contest saw parents, guardians and relatives of students participating with great zest, painting the faces of their respective wards. Interesting themes such as Birds, Animals, I love my India, Halloween and flowers were allotted to classes. Medals and certificates were awarded to the prize winners.

Art and Craft Exhibition

Art and craft exhibition of the Primary Section was organized by St. Teresa's Day School, Model House, Lucknow on 2nd February 2013 at 9:00 am. The classes were decorated colourfully and depicted different themes. The Nursery class children presented a beautiful animal world, whereas Preparatory class presented the world of Nursery rhymes, students made beautiful teapots, stars, cats and candles etc. The primary section of the school made beautiful decorative items, variety of flowers, picture frames, wall clocks, key tassels, napkins stand, potpourri, etc. It was an exemplary show of the Art & Craft talent by the students. Students confidently explained the various science projects based on pollution, photosynthesis, states of matter, traffic lights, etc. Parents were overwhelmed to see the talent and the hard work put-in by students. Mr. Peter Fanthome, Principal of the college, appreciated the efforts of the children. He said this type of activities improve the talents of the students.

Republic Day Celebration

The special assembly which was organized to mark the event, began with the Flag Hoisting and singing of the National Anthem. Thereafter speeches in English and Hindi were delivered wherein the struggles of the brave martyrs was recalled, their contribution was acknowledged with reverence and the duties of the present generation were enlisted. Similarly, patriotic and melodious songs both in English & Hindi were presented by the Choir. Principal of the College, Mr. Peter Fanthome remarked in his speech about the problems of the present generation and emphasized on enriching ones personality with noble values so as to make parents, teachers, school and the nation proud.

Farewell to Class 12th

On the 21st January 2013, the students of class XI organized a colourful programme for their seniors (the outgoing batch of class XII). It was a day of emotions and feelings. The students of class XII were dressed up in their best formal outfits.

Class XI put up a dance and Fashion show for their seniors, an evening of wonderful performances was seen. There were attractive games held to choose Mr. and Ms Teresa. Swati Shukla was awarded the title for Ms. Teresa and Mr. Teresa was Shoeb Khan. Students were given titles and souvenirs to remember their time spent in the Institution. The evening ended with a photo session, vote of thanks by the Principal followed by refreshments

Social Work

The school endeavored to instill among the young children the spirit of human service and kindness by organizing a solidarity stand with the unfortunate, by giving over woolen blankets at Khurram Nagar, Hanuman Mandir, Khamman Peer etc.

Huge bags of food grains like rice, pulses, flour etc. were given to the Orphanage Homes, Blind School and Home for Street Kids.

Many students took the initiative in helping the poor and the old, thus the session had been of immense satisfaction for all to see the youth learning to share their role in making a better tomorrow.
